

Please do not ease the restrictions on the telephone privacy act which keeps solicitors from disturbing me at home while I am eating supper with my family. It has been peacepful and I want to keep it that way. Thank you for your time.